

With all the networking groups and even live events moving to zoom these days, it's important to learn where else you can go networking online!

I've been on and also have been hosting Zoom calls for years now so here's what I would recommend! And feel free to join some of the calls I run too in the Int'l Speaker Network (listed below).

Here are a few options of groups who have meetings online.

1. Your own local chambers are probably now offering virtual meetings, luncheons, mixers, etc. I know mine are, go look at their websites.
2. Meetups are now also virtual so go look at that website and find groups all over you can attend ! www.meetup.com
3. Alignable now has events and groups for networking <https://www.alignable.com/>
4. Eventbrite has events you can peruse for networking <https://www.eventbrite.com/>
5. Events.com has events you can search for all kinds of things <https://events.com/>
6. Polka Dot Powerhouse - I'm a Diamond member and trainer, there are two levels to membership, regular and Diamond. You can check out one of their Open House calls if you go online, just register as a guest and tell them I sent you! (Click on the What Is PDP? Live Online Open House Events big pink button.) <https://www.PolkaDotPowerhouse.com/referral?atid=5096>
7. Int'l Speaker Network - I run this group and we have FREE monthly webinars on the 1st Tues from 4-5 pm PST & 3rd Fri from 9-10 am PST where anyone who comes live can introduce themselves and network in the chat room plus members can apply to speak on them too. Learn more here. www.iSpeakerNetwork.com
8. Women's Prosperity Network - I'm a Gold Lifetime member here and the three sisters that run this company are good friends of mine. They are other business coaches and run all kinds of live and virtual events but most are on the East Coast so I attend mostly the online calls which are monthly. Go check them out, you can attend a monthly mastermind call as a guest free and some of their WOW Wednesday calls too but those are not interactive, the masterminds are what I attend and recommend. <https://iw137.isrefer.com/go/home/ksawa/>
9. The Veranda Network - I'm not a member of this one but I've been on a few calls and the women on them are really great too. There is networking and speakers and it's a higher price to join but you can attend once or more for free or low cost. Find out more here. <https://www.theverandanetwork.com/>

10. Top Talent JV Mastermind - David Fagan runs this group and puts on 3 day networking and masterminding events every couple months. It's AWESOME to meet a bunch of great entrepreneurs doing big things and actively looking for collaboration partners. I highly recommend this event. It is by "invitation only" however so you do have to mention my name when you sign up, it's free.
